

STRATEGIC OUTSOURCING - FINANCIAL & TAX SERVICES

With the combined effects of new and more complex accounting and regulatory guidance, and companies continuing to maintain lean finance and accounting departments, it is crucial to have an external adviser capable of providing timely and quality support at a reasonable fee.

Whitley Penn has assembled a well-qualified team of business professionals with diverse backgrounds in public accounting and industry to serve as an additional advisor of your team as you navigate today's complex reporting environment. Our flexible approach means that we can match the right level and number of resources based on your specific needs. This can include expertise in areas such as industry, SEC, revenue recognition, equity transactions, financial statement or SEC filing preparation and tax provision preparation. Additionally, we can assist you in reviewing conclusions and documents completed by your team. We can also prepare the needed analysis or documentation for your external auditor.

Why Choose Whitley Penn?

The following describes the types of areas where we could provide consulting services to your company:
